Sedona First!

WHEN YOU VOTE FOR THE MAYOR
CONSIDER THE CANDIDATES' CORE VALUES

ROB ADAMS BELIEVES

- Government should be by the people and for the people
- The citizens of Sedona are our most valuable resource. We should encourage public participation in our government and listen to citizen input
- The city budget should be clear, understandable and transparent. It should be easily available for citizen review and comment
- All organizations that receive public money should be held to a high standard of accountability and funding decisions should not be discretionary. Funding priorities should be based on the level of service or benefit that an organization provides our community
- Good stewardship of our environment is good business.
- All decisions by the City Council should be guided by the principles set forth in our community plan and our vision statement. The health, safety and welfare of our citizens should always be our first priority
- The Mayor's personal or business interests should not conflict with the greater good of our community.....SEDONA FIRST!

PUTTING PEOPLE AND IDEAS TOGETHER
